

I do not feel it is appropriate to take the only ISP that we have, here in the rural communities that is the only job resources that we have. We are forced to take freelance jobs and other online jobs because there are no other jobs to be found.